

Understanding Income

Return Investments

Income return investments are financial products that provide periodic payouts monthly, quarterly, or yearly while typically preserving your capital and maintaining lower risk exposure.

Investors commonly seek these for:

- Regular income from savings
- Lower investment risk
- Financial stability for long-term planning ,
- Regular income from savings

